A photograph of a meal served on a white plate with a blue floral border. The plate contains a serving of rice mixed with small pieces of vegetables. To the left of the plate is a slice of whole-grain bread. Above the plate is a glass bowl filled with a light-colored soup. To the right of the plate is a whole red tomato. The items are placed on a tablecloth with a blue and white floral pattern. In the background, there are some colorful children's items, including a small toy car and a book with a red cover.
