50 I usually meet my friends down at the multiplex on a Saturday and we decide what to watch. There's always something new out that we want to see. Luckily, we have the same taste and don't spend too long deciding. I enjoy talking about it afterwards – the special effects, the acting and so on. It's my favourite pastime!

sure I am getting a good price. It's brilliant when you find a really nice top, and everyone thinks you paid a fortune for it, when in fact it cost you next to nothing!

54 You might think it strange that I spend so much time at the dog training centre. Most people my age are more interested in clubbing or hanging out at the mall. But it's great to work with animals. My dog, Roy, has become so obedient now and I have helped my neighbour's dog as well. It started out as a hobby, but I'm crazy about all the new gadgets that come out. I spend most of my free time shopping or surfing the Internet to check out the prices. The trouble is, nothing stays new for very long and you have to upgrade all the time. My mum says I spend too much on things I don't need. I can't help it — it's my passion. It's so exciting to keep up with the latest trends!

52

I have always been a very active person, always trying new sports and spending my time keeping fit. I enjoy sport not only because it is healthy but also because it is a good way to meet people. I'm really into mountain biking at the moment and so I spend most weekends on trips. We sleep out in tents — it's cool!

53

I spend a lot of my time shopping. I like to shop on my own or with my friends and most of my money is spent on clothes. But I am very careful with what I buy. I always spend time window shopping first and make who knows? I might decide to do it as a career.

55

Running errands for people is what I enjoy doing most. I usually help my grandma on a Saturday with her shopping and sometimes do some gardening too. There's always something that you can do to help people. It doesn't have to be a big job that takes up all your time — even the small things can make a difference. I never take money for the work I do. I do it because I want to help.

56

Seeing bands on TV or listening to recordings just isn't the same. You really need to hear it live. I love to go and listen to my favourite bands and often travel long distances to see them. Sometimes I drive down to London with some friends or I go for a weekend break and fly down. My favourite has got to be the Glastonbury Festival. There you can hear the best music around.

L. Suggested Answer

Hi Fiona,

Thank you for your email. I always enjoy hearing from you. I don't know how you get along with so many people in your family. We're only four in my family. My mum and dad like to do things together all the time. For example, in their spare time they go jogging and swimming. My sister, Mary, is ten years younger than me so we don't have that much in common. She usually makes a lot of noise when I have to study. It's annoying. At the weekends, we like to go hiking or go on small trips to nearby towns. I can't wait for the summer holidays either. We're going on a cruise of the Mediterranean.

How about you? What plans have you made for the holidays? Are you going to stay by the sea or hit the mountains? Which do you prefer?

Reading

J Read the text and answer questions 59-65, selecting the correct answer from the four choices given.

In the United Kingdom compulsory education ends at the age of sixteen. However, many students stay on and complete two more years. For some (and I include myself in this category) school just becomes a habit, something you don't want to give up as it is so familiar to you. School is your world and you know nothing else and so you just keep on going.

Imagine my feelings when sixth form was over and there were no more classes to complete! Instead of feeling a sense of joy and relief I panicked — what was I to do? The logical and best option was to go to university and continue my studies there, so that is precisely what I did.

Unfortunately, the end of secondary education in the U.K. is not marked by any sense of celebration, like in other countries like the U.S.A. where students 'graduate' at the age of 18 and have a fancy ball. (In the U.K. you have to wait until you finish college or university before you can have that privilege). In the U.K. you just 'finish school!' The lucky ones have a respectable collection of qualifications to their name as souvenirs; the unlucky ones may have slipped through the net somehow and end up going back to education at a later date when they feel more like studying. Education is more than qualifications, I admit that. But they are what count at the end of the day. I made sure I got my fair share of them, just in case.

Ask anyone what they remember most about school and they'd probably say the teachers. They are what makes education a humanistic experience and, therefore, are the most memorable: the good ones, the bad ones, the kindest ones, the most generous ones ... I was sad to leave them all, but I always was far too nostalgic!

School dinners, of course, are remembered for all the wrong reasons — the long queues, the fat dinner ladies, the greasy food! Thank goodness, they have introduced healthy eating plans in schools! Pupils are luckier nowadays!

Principally, school is all about belonging to a certain community and fitting in and making a contribution. I remember struggling at certain times in the year, trying to find time for musical productions and athletics competitions. I wanted to do everything and make my school proud. What was I more — an athlete or a musician? I was both, and a scholar too; an 'all-rounder', I suppose you could say. Luckily, I was able to rely on my natural ability to get me through the exams and didn't have to spend too much time studying. I just listened to my teachers and got through that way. I thank them, really I do.

So, it will come as no surprise to you to find out that I became a teacher after I finished university. I couldn't get enough of school and so I stayed there! But this time it's different. Now I can give something back to society. I face many challenges every day but I keep going.

A earlier than in the U.S.A.
B when they finish school.

D on completion of university.
- 62 In paragraph 3 "slipped through the net" means that some students
A did not leave school with many qualifications.
B got a good number of qualifications.
C were lucky at school.
D left school later.
- 63 According to the narrator, school dinners
A were a pleasant experience.
B are remembered fondly by most students.
C are bad for you.
D are better now than they were before.
- 64 The narrator had difficulty at school
A deciding what to be.
B meeting the demands of extracurricular activities.
C studying for exams.
D listening to teachers.

- A he/she was fed up of it.

Fairfield Camps
P.O. Box 206
Sunnydale

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to apply for the position of Summer Camp Activity Leader which was advertised in our local newspaper. I am 19 years old and in my second year at university. I am studying Sports Science and plan to specialise in leisure activities for youths. For this reason, I would like to gain some valuable experience working as a Camp Activity Leader.

I am actively involved in a youth community project where I help organise the sporting activities. I also play the guitar and spend a few afternoons a week teaching young children to play. I enjoy working with young people and providing them with positive life skills. I believe it is important to reach out to youths and respond to their needs and interests.

I would be available for an interview at any time. I have enclosed a copy of my CV. I look forward to hearing from you.

Your faithfully,
Martin Jones

My best holiday ever

Janice and I were left speechless as we encountered the breathtaking shores of Lake Malawi. We were on a yoga safari in the heart of Zambia, Africa. We had first run across this holiday on an Internet blog. The idea of combining our favourite hobby with a safari adventure had caught our attention instantly.

We shared a spacious and secluded villa on a hillside. Our mornings began with yoga classes which were held on a beach, under the shade of a tree or in a location overlooking the lake. It was magical, relaxing and peaceful. Meals were purely vegetarian served with refreshing herbal teas. Afternoon sessions were held during sunsets.

After seven days we spent four days on safari in the wilderness. We went on game drives and guided walks through the African bush. One afternoon as we were taking a siesta under a tree, a herd of elephants came to join us on the waterfront. We quietly watched as they washed and sprayed each other with the river water.

We returned home completely rejuvenated in body and mind. We were sorry to have left behind the beauty of the untamed wilderness and felt nausea when the city smells finally reached us. As a result, we made a promise to go

Nowadays it has become very easy to access music via CDs, the radio or by downloading your favourite tracks from the Internet. In fact, it is quite easy to forget how music is made and people these days seldom go to hear music being performed. In my opinion, we should make an effort to go to concerts and support musicians. We should recognise and enjoy their talent.

The Lost Pony tells the story of a young girl, Annie and the special relationship she has with her four-legged friend, Hannah. All is well until Hannah mysteriously disappears one day, seemingly never to return. The book is full of emotion and has vivid descriptions of Texas, where the book is set. Far from predictable, this book will thrill any reader from the age of ten!

You may wonder why so many people all over the world watch daily soap operas. Got nothing better to do with their time? Well, watching soaps is better for you than you might imagine. The plot lines may be rather predictable, but there are plenty of things we can learn from what the characters experience. Such programmes are surprisingly educative and they approach topics in a light-hearted way. This may be why they are so popular.

STAR TREK

The new Star Trek film, directed by JJ Abrams, is a spectacular recreation and retelling of the original tale of the successful TV series of the '60s. It is a fast-paced action adventure which introduces the characters in their youth and reveals their backgrounds and their first mission onboard the USS Enterprise.

The plot is both gripping and interesting for the Trekkie and non-Trekkie audiences alike, full of surprising twists and a touching love story. The filmmaker gives each character their moment of glory within the plot. The film takes us through their first mission to save the Earth from an evil visitor from the future, Nero.

The casting of the characters is brilliant. Chris Pine, Zachary Quinto and Eric Bana as Nero, give a fresh look at the original characters. Furthermore, the special effects are simply out of this world!

All in all, Star Trek is sure to win over old Trekkie fans and make new ones as well. Its plot keeps you on the edge of your seat until the very end. It's definitely a film for the big screen, so don't wait for it on DVD.

The Lowdown on Bullies!

At some point in our lives many of us will have to deal with a bully. Yet bullies are not all the same. To be able to handle such a threat, it is important to know what kind of person you are dealing with.

The most dangerous and common bully is the aggressive one. Aggressive bullies use the fear of violence to control others. Unfortunately, it doesn't stop there. They are known to quickly lose their temper and harm their victims without ever feeling sorry for them. When faced with such a person, immediately tell a parent or teacher. Furthermore, stay in public places and amongst others for safety. Some people even learn self-defence to protect themselves against this kind of bully. However, violence is not the answer, as it leads to even more violence.

Next, are the verbal bullies. They attack with words and are only happy when others feel hurt. So when an unkind joke is made, show as little reaction as possible and just walk away. Remember, you cannot talk sense to an unreasonable person. And, above all, never make jokes about yourself to prove that nothing can hurt you. This will only encourage them.

Last, is the computer bully. The best way to deal with this menace is by deleting their messages. Do not read anything they write and never send a reply. When faced with such a person, it is wise to seriously consider a change of email address.

Keep in mind that bullies are simply people who envy the talents of their victims. The only way they can feel powerful is by putting others down. Therefore, never listen to anything they have to say!

- 39 Aggressive bullies later regret hurting someone.
- 40 When dealing with an aggressive bully, seek the help of an adult.
- 41 Humour will keep verbal bullies away.
- 42 One way to deal with computer bullies is to report them to the police.

- 43 Computer bullies use very advanced technology.
- 44 Bullies are jealous of what other people are good at.

Dogs to the Rescue

Dogs are great companions. 39) But did you know that apart from being wonderful pets, these canine friends have made a vast contribution to saving countless lives?

SAR (Search and Rescue) dogs are used in search efforts to find missing people. They are specifically trained to find victims buried under snow or debris, so they can quickly be brought to safety. 40) When it comes to emergency rescues, these dogs are fast and efficient, and their keen sense of smell enables them to locate accident victims much more quickly than humans.

Any breed of dog can be trained to be part of SAR rescue missions. 41) First, they must be people-friendly. This is important, as the missing people they find are strangers, and many times the dogs have to stay with them and care for them until a rescue crew can get to them. 42) This is because when the puppies are being trained, it is through fun and game techniques that handlers are able to teach the necessary tasks to make them efficient rescuers later on.

Whether SAR dogs and their handlers work for a government agency or are volunteers, they go through extensive training and in many cases, have to pass a certification test. During basic training, the dogs learn how to detect and follow human scents. 43) Avalanche dogs, for example, need to be able to dig and search in snow in very low temperatures. Other dogs are taught to walk over disaster areas carefully so as not to endanger victims under the debris. 44)

Whatever the task, SAR dogs are not only man's best friend, but in life or death situations, they are truly heroes!

- A An SAR dog will even enter a burning building to save someone's life.
 B After this, the dogs are taught a variety of tasks to prepare them for different kinds of emergencies.
 C In snowstorms, earthquakes and landslides, SAR dog teams are usually the first on the scene.
 D Trainers have to be careful when choosing the appropriate diet for an SAR dog.
 E It is also very important that they have a playful nature.
 F However, they must have two basic characteristics.
 G A welcome addition to any household, they are loyal, affectionate and playful.

The race is on as to which country will be the first to inhabit the Moon. Apart from the United States, Russia and recently India; now China, Japan and Europe plan on sending astronauts to the Moon in the next 20 years. So, a station on the Moon might soon be possible! 39

The most obvious include the questions of power, water, air and shelter. At this time scientists feel that the best place to establish a station would be either at the North or South Pole. Here the temperature does not change as much throughout the day as it does near the equator. 40

At present, NASA is in the process of sending a spacecraft to the Moon. Their high-tech computers will be able to analyse the signals sent back to Earth, providing useful knowledge for the researchers. 41 The search is based on the theory that the knowledge for the researchers. 41

The search is based on the theory that the comets which have been hitting the Moon over the last 2 billion years have left ice in its craters. 42

Once this is done, the water could be separated into hydrogen and oxygen, providing an atmosphere that can support life.

As for the question of material to build shelters, it would be best to get as many resources as possible from the Moon, since the cost of transport is extremely high.

43 Luckily, the Earth's satellite is rich in minerals that could be used to build a future station and even for rocket fuel.

Once we inhabit the Moon, who knows? 44

- A Just think, $400,000 is needed to send an object that weighs around four kilos to the Moon.

A Monkey Sanctuary, Kruger Park, South Africa

The Kruger Rehabilitation Centre is home to approximately 500 monkeys. At the centre much of your time will be spent caring for ill, injured or orphaned monkeys. Depending upon your skills, you will be expected to do a little general repair work around the centre, but if you don't already possess such abilities, you can learn on the job. Thanks to the fundraising efforts of earlier volunteers we are able to build a number of new facilities. In your spare time you can take advantage of the great location and enjoy spotting the country's wild animals.

B Sea Turtle Conservation, Sri Lanka

The Sea Turtle Conservation Project takes care of five different species of sea turtle. On this project most of your time will be spent cleaning beaches in time for the turtles to come and lay their eggs there. Unfortunately, the island is still suffering from the damage caused in the 2004 tsunami, so there is plenty of repair work to be done. Yet, if you are looking for a small island with golden sandy beaches, mountains, jungle, welcoming people and you are not afraid of hard work then this is the place for you.

C Community work with children, Kenya

This project in Mombassa, Kenya needs your support helping children in need. Mombassa is Kenya's second largest city and home to more than 300,000 orphaned street children. The project involves caring for the children. You will also have a teaching role where you will be expected to engage in learning activities and games as well as homework support. In return you will be given a small financial reward along with a basic apartment. On your days off you can enjoy the world-renowned beaches of this stunning coastal city.

D Building Project, Costa Rica

Make a difference to the lives of families in the region by helping them build their own dwelling. There are approximately 150,000 people in Costa Rica who live in unsafe housing conditions. On this practical project you will be expected to help with everything from making bricks to painting walls. Once the project is complete you can take great satisfaction in knowing that you have helped to create a better future for a Costa Rican family.
